

Mahalo

Mahalo to Sean of campus security at Kapiolani Community College. I was late for my passport appointment, and luckily Sean happened to drive by, so I waved him down and asked for directions. Instead of giving me directions, he drove me to the building and told me how to get to the office. Thank goodness for his kindness. Because of him, I was able to get to my appointment on time. —
Grateful senior